Section 8

Introduction

This section focuses on the need to OPPOSE policy and legislative actions that limit the ability of individuals to expand the wealth and power they possess (e.g. voter suppression, defunding public education, defunding programs that provide basic needs support to families, impeding access to higher ed), and SUPPORT policy and legislative actions that support individuals in expanding the wealth and power they possess (for examples see expanding opportunity section).

VOTING

This report by the Center for American Progress "examines how lawmakers continue to protect discriminatory policies and enact new flawed ones that preserve barriers to voting for people of color. Promoting full participation, therefore, will require intentional public policy efforts to dismantle long-standing barriers and protect the right to vote for all Americans."

HIGHER EDUCATION

Reductions in public funding to institutions of higher education increase pressure for colleges/universities to raise tuition. Tuition increases, in turn, have a tendency to reduce diversity at these institutions as shown in this chart.

Barriers to Higher Education

Estimated effects on diversity by amount of tuition hike

As tuition increases, diversity declines.
