

2018 Butler Awards Nomination Form

Spirit of Collaboration: Organization or Collaborative Initiative

Honors an organization or collaborative that has worked to bring together people, organizations, civic, business and/or community groups or initiatives to collectively address community needs in an effective manner, thus improving the health, well-being and safety of the community.

Community Leadership: Individual

Honors an individual who exhibits integrity, trust, vision and passion to champion and meaningfully support collaborative efforts aimed at improving the health, well-being and safety of the community.

Bridge Builder: Individual

Honors an individual who has worked quietly or behind the scenes to bring about positive community change by building “bridges” to unite people or causes, serving as a role model and inspiration to others.

The Butler Awards, named in honor of CAN’s first Executive Director, Fred Butler, are awarded to an individual or collaboration that has worked to bring people, organizations, and groups together to collectively address community needs. The focus of the work of the individuals and/or collaborations being recognized must be upon issues that affect community well-being in Austin or Travis County and that further the mission and vision of Community Advancement Network.

Deadline for Nominations is: November 30, 2018 at 5 p.m.

Nominations must be submitted via email to CAN’s Executive Director, Raul Alvarez at the following email address: ralvarez@canatx.org or mailed to Community Advancement Network, 4900 Gonzales St., Room 111, Austin, TX 78702.

The awards will be presented at the CAN Beginning of Year Celebration in January 2018 and will be announced on the CAN website and in CANews in the weeks leading up to that event.

Nominator (person making the nomination):

Name: _____

Phone: _____ Email: _____

Individual/Collaboration being nominated:

Name of Individual or Collaboration: _____

Please answer each question in 250 words or less.

1. How does this individual or collaboration meet the award criteria specified in the above description?
2. If the nomination is for a collaboration, please list the organizations participating in the collaboration and the purpose of the collaboration.
3. If the nomination is for an individual, please be sure to list and describe the community collaborations that they have championed or supported.
4. What is unique or special about what the individual or collaboration has accomplished or contributed?
5. What positive community outcome has resulted from the work of this collaboration or individual?